

MICHAEL KORS

Michael Kors Spring 2011 Eyewear Collection

Michael Kors is one of the fastest growing, new fashion designers in America for luxury accessories and sportswear. He is renowned for his classic, chic, and luxurious but sensible style.

Michael Kors Eyewear is the pinnacle of modern American luxury translated into eyewear. The sleek, sexy and sophisticated designs complement the jet-set lifestyle. Made from the finest materials, the eyewear collection artfully mixes textures, materials and proprietary details, combining the everyday with the luxurious. From his hallmark aviator sunglasses to his iconic design elements, the eyewear is designed for anyone who embraces high fashion, while still demanding outstanding quality and ease to complete their look.

The Michael Kors Spring 2011 Eyewear Collection captures the bold, jet set glamour of his clothing and accessories, in an array of sun and optical styles. Distinctive design elements amplify signature shapes that are synonymous with the brand. Metal hardware is infused onto temples creating dimension. Vintage shapes are molded of zyl and metal, exhibiting effortless style.

The undeniable style of the Michael Kors Sunglass Collection is marked by the continuous use of the finest materials and proprietary details. Metal accents highlight the zyl front for extra glamour. Sure to be a classic, this model features the iconic MK Charm integrated dimensionally over the temple. Others incorporate the metal pyramid stud found on other Michael Kors products, creating a luxurious look and feel.
