We at Moscon Optics are pleased to announce that with effect from January 2016 we will be relaunching Etnia Barcelona eyewear to the South African market, within the Moscon Optics brand portfolio.

We are very excited to once again be representing such an amazing eyewear brand and we look forward to Etnia Barcelona reaching its rightful place within the South African eyewear arena.

The Moscon Optics sales representatives that will be representing Etnia Barcelona in the South African market will be communicated in due course.
