

KRYPTIC TITANIUM

New addition to the Kryptic Range

February 2015

Moscon Optics is proud to announce the release of our new Kryptic Titanium range! Together with the recently expanded Kryptic Kids range, Kryptic Eyewear is an affordable, high quality and cutting edge brand, ideal for any practice.

10 models in conservative best-selling shapes and constructed out of pure titanium, each frame is embellished with intricately designed temples.

All Kryptic Titanium models are supplied with a case and cloth.
