WEB EYEWEAR
- LIFE IS A PARADE -

The new WEB optical autumn-winter 2014/15 collection emanates vintage style with a contemporary key. Innovation and attention to detail are used to create elegant and distinctive shapes for these new optical frames. Synonymous with style and originality, this WEB Eyewear collection incorporates attractive design elements such as shiny finishes and intense colours creating models with an amazing spirit.

OPTICAL COLLECTION

WE5124

This unisex optical frame incorporates both a classic and dynamic line. The square shape is enhanced by a simple design and thin profile. The primary colours contrast with the colours of the temples allowing for an eclectic aesthetic.

WE5131

This lightweight rounded optical frame comprises an acetate front combined with metal temples. This frame is customized by an elegant nose-key which offers a unique vintage effect.

WE5132

The trendy optical frame is ideal for women: this frame incorporates an acetate cat eye shape that is characterized by an "easy-to-wear" line with creative colours. The contrast between the front and temples enhance the uniqueness of this style.

WE5135

This youthful women's acetate optical frame displays a wide shape and soft line, finished with the "W" logo and striking colour combinations on the temple.

WE5136

A minimal and essential look for men, the rectangular optical in metal has an acetate-covered front. This model offers the option of a lightweight metal clip-on, turning this chic optical frame into an exclusive sun look. This look offers both a contemporary and retro style that is emblematic of WEB Eyewear.
